Herdsman of the Year is such a huge accomplishment and validation of all the hard work cleaning, breeding, culling, and showing you've done all year. It also acknowledges the depth of quality in your herd. It definitely helps that there are two of us to make the major decisions. We generally love the same rabbits and agree which could move on to help another breeder. We've missed a lot of our Holland family this past year with so many people not breeding or showing, as well as those unlucky enough to have fallen ill.

Nationals in Kansas was gratifying as we placed 13 in the top 10, as well as having BOSV solid and BOV broken and BOSB with our broken junior doe, BFE Copenhagen. Here's hoping we see a lot of you at the Reno ARBA Convention, as Debra and I are co-chairmen.

Respectfully, Nicole
